The Applicant understands and agrees that:

- They must pay for the first period in advance by credit, debit card, cheque or electronic transfer. The next payment is due on or before the permit renewal date.
 - All annual permit are payable in full on each anniversary of the start date.
- APCOA Parking Ireland Limited; Registered in Ireland. Reg. No. 282692. Reg. Address: 11 Millbank Business Park, Lucan, Co. Dublin.
 Directors: Neil Cunningham, Bettina Augeneder (Austria). Company Secretary: Aine Hanlon.

- They will get no refund for any days when the car park is not available or not used by them during the period they have paid for.
- They need to give at least one (1) months' notice of cancellation, no refunds will be issued for unused days.
- A permit is only valid once payment has been received as cleared funds by APCOA.
- They must tell APCOA before the current permit/s expires if they do not want it to be renewed. They understand that if they do not give at least 30 days' notice any renewal payment that is in place will continue to be collected and a new permit/s will be issued to them.
- APCOA will tell them by email at least 30 days before any price increase will take effect. The new rate will apply from the start of the next renewal period as long as that is at least 30 days after they have been sent notice of the increase.
- If they do not make payment by the date it is due, then APCOA may withdraw their ability to use the "Highfield Rugby Club" car park.
- If they lose the permit or it is damaged, then they will need to pay an administration fee of €25 for a replacement Permit. Their permit/s remains the property of APCOA at all times.
- The personal information collected in this form will only be used by APCOA to administer the regular renewal of their permit/s.
- They have read and understand the Conditions of Parking that are displayed at the car park and they agree that they apply to their use of the car park. They agree that the permit gives them only a limited licence to be in the car park for the purpose of parking in accordance with the Conditions of Parking that are displayed. They accept that they have no other interest in the Car Park.
